एक छोटा सा दृढ संकल्प और आपका लक्ष्य के प्रति अटूट विश्वास, इतिहास बदल सकता है।
महात्मा गॉधी

From the CEO's desk....

Rajasthan Samgrah Kalyan Sansthan has been dealing with various siginificant issues for last 24 years. These issues include women empowerment, sustainable livelihood, environement conservation, education, health. It is a matter of pride. The organisation, according to the Mahatma Gandhi's principle "A little determination and your faith to the aim may change the history." is striving for the development of marginalised and deprived section. The annual reports represents the appreciable works of the organisation.

Inspired by the Prime Minister, Mr. Narendra Damodar Das Modi, Rajasthan Samgrah Kalyan Sansthan has provided skill development training to more than 500 deprived women in order to make they self-reliant. It is a minor effort of the organisation in order to make the Skill India dream true.

We have faith in mankind completely, therefore, a team of Rajasthan Samgrah Kalyan Sansthan came forward to help the earthquake victim families in the neighbouring country Nepal last year. The entire team deserves appreciations for this.

zThe determination, dedication and hard work of the organisation's team it has towards social development and welfare is the major reason by which Rajasthan Samgrah kalyan Sansthan has been able to perform precisely. I owe them for that and appreciate them as well. Additionally, I thank to all the government and non-governemet organisations, partners and supporters to support the organisation economically and technically.

I appreciate the noble work of Rajasthan Samgrah Kalyan Sansthan and hope them to continue their significant efforts.

Livestock Breeding

Sotck raising is the major axis along with agriculture in rural areas. Rajasthan Samgrah Kalyan Sansthan is managing the project for stock raising. Under the project, the villagers are trained for breed improvement, artificial insemination process, treatment of animal diseases, vaccination. Moreover, the stockmen are taught proper feeding and better ways to look after the stock under the project.

Child Right & Welfare

Make A Wish for Street & Slum Kids

A wonderful initiative to share happiness among street and slum children has been taken in Ajmer by Rajasthan Samgrah Kalyan Sansthan, with the support of Global Giving Foundation. Under this project, nutritious food, toys, sweets, new dress, chocolates are provided to street and slum children. Efforts are taken continuously to enlighten the life of these unlucky children by means of fireworks, colors, water-guns, cake, etc on the occasion of festivals as Christmas, Diwali, Holi.

Demand of the Project

The life of slum and street children is surrounded by darkness. The sense of alienation of society leads them to get involved into immoral acts as theft, addiction, prostitution. Happiness is miles away from these children. They hardly get two meals a day. These unlucky and helpless children can never think of delicious food, toys, new clothes even in their dreams. The society just gets them abuse, exploitation and the sense of alienation only which develops exasperation towards the society in their hearts.

Lack of food leads them to suffere from malnutrition. Moreover, there life is full of darkness even on the ocassion of festivals. Altogether, these slum and street children live their life in darkness staying miles away from happiness of childhood.

Activities

- To Provide dinner at a good hotel to street poor children
- To Provide gift for golden memory
- Share inspiration and motivational story
- Uplift their confidence

Anjana Mahawar, a 31-years old Dalit girl was unemployed some time ago. One day she got a hope all of a sudden when she was selected as a trainee from her locality, slum of Nagra for handicraft vocational education by RSKS, supported by FVTRS. This handicraft training gets Anjana a significant opportunity to develop livelihood.

After getting trained for 3 months in handicraft skill training, she has become a successful entrepreneur for the local women. Anjana makes various handicrafts as ceramic art, cipra, doorbell, veneration plate, photo frame, clock and other stuffs at her home and earns Rs. 6,000 per month by selling them at local market of Ajmer or in exhibition.

It is a felling of sorrow and amaze that Anjana is a disabled since childhood. She became a victim of polio in her childhood. But it is a feeling of joy that she is full of confidence, energy and enthusiasm after all of this. It is her enthusiasm and confidence that allows her to perform so brilliantly in manufacturing handicrafts.

Now Anjana has become a source of inspiration for other localities dalit girls. Anjana tells about the handicraft education program -

"Handicraft skill development training is a proper way for many girls like me to make their dreams true."

22 years old , poor Chandni had studied till 11th, Being married at the minor age she had to leave her study. Chandni, perhaps, had a bad luck that her husband was habitual alcoholic and unemployed. He used to consume liquor and have fight with Chandni. Chandni, victim of domestic violence kept silent due to shyness. Her marriage life was at the edge of divorce and ultimately she had to get complaint file against her husband in police station. But her in-laws were economically sound and she had to wander for justice. Her failure to get justice led her to the situation of depression.

One day she came to know about Rajasthan Samgrah Kalyan Sansthan, she communicated and told her story to the organisation. After hearing her story, Rajasthan Samgrah Kalyan Sansthan got her a copy of her complaint from the police station and also got her consultation from a legal advisor for divorce. In addition to, she was promoted to learn handicraft work for her livelihood. Chandni learnt handicraft training with passion and got trained successfuly. Now, Chandni makes beautiful handicraft artifacts as puja thali, photo frame, door bell, decorative wall hanging at her home and sells in the market and thus she lives a dignified live. A better livelihood from handicraft self-employment gets her able for upbringing of her 2 years old son in a better way. Chandni gets support and help from Rajasthan Samgrah Kalyan Sansthan in her court case of divorce.

Visitors

Had a wonderful meet with the organization. Keep up the good work, it seems your work is appreciating you, great impact on the community.

Elisa, France USA

Today, i happen to visit RSKS office and found that the organization is doing yeomen service for upliftment of rural & backward women and society in more girls. I extend my good wishes to Mr. S.N.Sharma (Deepak) and his team, to serve the society in more excellent way.

BL Meena, IPS officer

Today we visited a school in a poor village, a training centre for clothes making and a self help group in a remote village. The organization has very interesting projects RSKS that create lot of value for the community. I enjoyed my visit and hope my pictures can be used to increase awareness and funds raining for RSKS. \

Volunteer view

From last few years I am working with RSKS as a volunteer and believe me it is not only a proud for me but also a sense of existence in this world. Through them, I am able to contribute to welfare of the society, specially women and children. RSKS is working for women empowerment, livelihood, to raise the standard of living, stop violence against women, dowry system, female fertiliser and many more. As a volunteer with RSKS, I learned the art of giving. This is most proudable thing in my life to contribute my effort to the society. I am extremely thankful to RSKS NGO and would like to wish them for the future. Proud to be the part of RSKS as a volunteer.

Bhawna Sharma, Lecturer (PHD) Ajmer

Intern view

Under the pursuance of MSW course from IGNOU-New Delhi through correspondence, I appreciated the CEO of RSKS, Ajmer to place myself in the organization to complete my Block Placement of 45 days. The work focused on Vocational Training Programme was the key focus of my work which oriented me towards lots of activities, working of NGOs, structure of the organization, powers and function of key members, management of training programs, 2 other allied aspects. This work helped me in gaining knowledge around the three major area: management, communication & surveying, and all thanks goes to Mr. S.N.Sharma who helped and guided me in this regard.
